Statement Migration -- Reconciliation Report

Opening date: 2026-07-31

This report documents how the production client roster and balances were rebuilt from the 31 July 2026 Konnet Initiatives member statement, ClientInfo.xlsx and LoanInfo.xlsx. It lists everything that needed a judgment call: clients excluded by the double-X rule, clients whose personal details could not be matched, and group-save entries deferred for manual follow-up.

1. Overview

The statement lists every member as of 31/07/2026. Member codes starting with a double 'X' (closed accounts) are excluded entirely; a single leading 'X' denotes a dormant account and is still imported, marked inactive.

Total statement rows parsed	1060

2. Groups

Members with a nonzero Group Save figure are not imported as individual clients (their balance is a pooled group asset, not a personal one) except for each group's representative code, which is imported as a normal client (its own shares/savings/etc.) and also serves as the group's linked client record. The representative's own Group Save figure is folded into the group's pooled total below.

3. Deferred group-save figures (client still imported normally)

These members have a nonzero Group Save figure but do not belong to a recognised group prefix (FK = Saffron Investment Club, WK = Broskies). Only that stray Group Save figure is left out -- it isn't added to a group and isn't counted as personal savings, pending manual follow-up on which group (if any) they belong to. Everything else about the client (shares, savings, FD, loans) is imported normally, same as any other member.

4. Clients not found in ClientInfo.xlsx

These clients appear in the member statement but have no matching row in ClientInfo.xlsx (matched by member code). They are still imported, using the name from the statement, but personal details (gender, date of birth, phone, email, address, next of kin) are left blank and should be filled in manually if available.
